On the 1st April for the review day students are expected to accompany their parent/carer to school for their Mentor Meeting. We will welcome all pupils back to Armstrong School on Monday 19th April 2010 at 8.30am.

Primary Links

During the course of the last two terms from Armstrong Year 7 have returned to their Primary Schools to talk to Year 6 about "Life in Armstrong". They have all been excellent ambassadors for the school.

In addition children from Broadwood and Hawthorn Primaries have visited Armstrong to take part in various lessons which they all thoroughly enjoyed.

Armstrong Attendance Challenge

Armstrong School is aiming for 100% Attendance in all years during summer term. Prizes will be given to Meet & Greet Groups, Individual Students and Whole Years for reaching the targets set.

To ensure all pupils are in with a chance of winning a prize we are asking all parents/carers to encourage 100% attendance.

Sir Bobby Robson Foundation Presentation

A representative from The Sir Bobby Robson Foundation visited Armstrong School on Thursday 11th March to be presented with a cheque.

The cheque, for £300, was raised by Academy Staff and Pupils sponsoring Mr Fernando (Armstrong School's Attendance Manager) to have his head shaved at the hand of Miss Rutherford (Armstrong School's Admin).

Academy Bookmarks

Congratulations to Syeda Begum and William Robinson for taking runner up places in the Excelsior Academy Bookmark Competition.

The Sir Bobby Robson Foundation is Armstrong School's chosen charity, and as a school we aim to raise many more donations for this excellent cause.

Armstrong students return to School on Monday 19th April at 8:30am. Have a nice break.
